

PEDAGOGICAL INNOVATION
Self-paced online course

Sense of Community and Interaction in Digital Environments

Join at any time

GAIN AN UNDERSTANDING OF APPROACHES TO SUPPORTING SENSE OF COMMUNITY, COLLABORATIVE
LEARNING AND INTERACTION IN ONLINE LEARNING ENVIRONMENTS!

PRE-REQUISITES

- Teaching staff who want to enhance their e-teaching and learning competence. Both beginning teachers and those with more experience welcome.

HOW TO REGISTER

- URL

Sense of Community and Interaction in Digital Environments

ONLINE COURSE

NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS

- no limit

DURATION

- 25-30h. including the final assignment (a lesson plan)

OBJECTIVE

- Participants will gain an understanding of approaches to supporting sense of community, collaborative learning and interaction in online learning environments and are encouraged to reflect on how they would apply these in their own teaching practice.

SUMMARY

- The topics the course covers include the significance of collaboration and interaction for learning, group formation, motivation, and tools, technologies and techniques that can be used to support collaborative learning and interaction in online environments.